Marking devices

Sport Ident system will be used.

Terrain

Both terrains are located within 50-km range. They are mid-difficult, relatively flat, with small hills, covered with deciduous forest. Relatively dense net of country tracks and paths is available on both terrains. But deep gullies and gorges at some places and some isolated difficult to pass areas shall be expected, too. No hazardous areas.

Maps

The maps for both competitions will be IOF standard, A4 size (210 x 297 mm), scale 1:15000, contour interval 10 meters. A sample of a map is shown below.

Opportunities for training

A number of trainings on both bands will be organized during the period 9-15 September in the vicinity of Obzor (but away from the competition terrains). There are several options:

- to use the period of World HST Championship and apply for accommodation and full board in the same hotel for the whole period (see Bulletin No 1 – Additional opportunities);
- to apply for accommodation and full board in the same hotel for part of the period for Euro 42.- per person per day;
- to apply for accommodation and full board in a cheaper hotel (organized by BFRA) for Euro 25.- per person per day.

In all the cases above an additional fee for each training Euro 5.- will be due.

Amateur Radio Station

An amateur radio station with special call sign LZ17ARDF will be at disposal of the licensed radio amateurs during the days of the Championships. CEPT license is required to operate.

Excursion on the day off

An excursion to Nessebar will be organized on the day off (19 September). Nessebar (35 km apart from Obzor) is a town with huge historical heritage, included in the UNESCO's List of Cultural Heritage, and in the same time one of the best Bulgarian sea resorts. Visiting the Archaeological Museum, numerous historical churches and spending an hour or more on the beach is a must.

Important notes

1. BFRA would like to remind all societies which have not yet sent their LETTER OF INTENT (see Bulletin No 1) that the Championships will be held during the vacation season when all the hotel reservations must be made in advance. Therefore BFRA will consider all late entries with a willingness to help but without any guarantee that they will be satisfied and participants accepted.
2. All the additional information and next Bulletins will be distributed only to societies that have responded and only to the contact person regarding the Championships. The information will also be available on the website of the Championships www.ardf2009.eu
